2012 artscamps

This summer the City of Carlsbad's Cultural Arts Office provides children ages 7 to 13 opportunities to learn, create and have fun in an engaging and safe environment. Campers can choose from two unique and inspiring camp experiences — Creative Arts Camp and Club Pelican. Camps meet daily, Monday through Friday, and are staffed by professional artist educators, an on-site coordinator and many energetic young adult volunteers. Read further for camp descriptions, dates/times and age requirements. When registering, please note the camp code highlighted in bold above each camp description. Camp fees include all materials.

Creative Arts Camp

Camp Code: CAC-112

Mondays through Fridays

July 16 through 27

9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Ages 9 to 12

Fee: $270

This two-week camp emphasizes a collaboration of the visual arts and theatre, with a touch of music mixed in. Campers will work with a visual artist to experiment with a wide range of media, including painting, drawing, three-dimensional design, textiles and more! The theatre instructor will lead children through a series of performance activities and exercises. We'll venture into theatre games and participate in improvisation, basic script development and writing, clowning and movement. All activities are designed to promote personal expression, self-confidence and critical thinking skills.

On Friday, July 27 the session will culminate in a performance with campers showcasing their completed works of art. Parents and family members are invited.

Instructors: Tami Noorzay, visual arts; Heather Rushworth, theatre

Creative Arts Camp is held at the Carlsbad City Library complex
1775 Dove Lane, Carlsbad, 92011.

Enrollment is on a first-come, first-served basis and is limited to 36 students.

Your Best Chance to Get In!

Because Club Pelican is our most popular summer program, it often fills up on walk-in registration day for Carlsbad residents. We recommend that you show up in person. While this won't guarantee a spot, it will increase your chances of successfully enrolling your child.

Club Pelican

At Club Pelican, science and art unite in one great camp! The Batiquitos Lagoon is the “natural” location for this unique camp in which campers learn first-hand the wonders of nature. Guided by an experienced naturalist, campers will hike the lagoon’s trails to explore the animal habitats, native birds and plants, insects and geology that reside there. Next, finding inspiration in the natural wonders they observed, campers will paint, draw, construct and create artworks of all kinds. This fun-filled—and very popular—camp is held in partnership with the Batiquitos Lagoon Foundation.

Instructors:

Tami Noorzay, visual arts (CP112, CP212, CP312)

Quentin Johnston, visual arts (CP412)

Karen Hoyle, naturalist (all sessions)

Club Pelican is held at the Batiquitos Nature Center located off of Gabbiano Lane, Carlsbad.

Enrollment is on a first-come, first-served basis and is limited to 30 students per session. Due to the popularity of our Club Pelican program, we only allow one camp session per camper.

Sessions for ages 7 to 9

CP112: June 25 to 29

CP212: July 9 to 13

CP312: July 30 to Aug. 3

CP412: Aug. 6 to 10

Camp sessions:

This year we are making some changes in our August session for 10- to 13-year-olds by putting more of an emphasis on science. Activities may include Least Tern nest-watching and documentation, along with conducting various science experiments. Campers will also be engaged in a creative, high-quality art-making experience which may include creating a fantasy insect, a colorization project and graphic design.

about our instructors

Karen Hoyle has been teaching fifth grade at St. Patrick School in Carlsbad for 28 years. Before that, she taught fourth grade in the San Gabriel Valley. Inspired by nature, she has been the naturalist for Club Pelican for the past five years. In her free time, she enjoys dancing, running and spending time with her family.

Quentin Johnston is a former biologist who now works as a professional artist and teaches visual arts through the Three-Part-Art program for the City of Carlsbad. He also teaches small, private classes for adults. Quentin has worked on logos, illustration and fine art projects for a variety of clients and is currently working on his second instructional book on color.

Tami Noorzay teaches visual arts to elementary students at Vista Academy for Visual and Performing Arts. She is a UCSD graduate with a B.A. in studio art, and is currently pursuing a Master's in global education. She is also an active board member of Kid's College. Her passion is giving students the opportunity to unearth their creative potential while discovering their own perspective. Tami has been an instructor for Creative Arts Camps since 2007.

Heather Rushworth is a graduate of The Second City Hollywood Conservatory for Sketch Comedy. While earning her degree from UCLA in American Literature and Culture, she performed as a headlining comedian at The Comedy Store on Sunset Boulevard. She has appeared on MTV, Bravo and NBC, as well as an improvisational comedian at SeaWorld. She has taught drama, dance, cheer, acting for film and improvisation to children and teens for over ten years.
